

NGAA NGAYUNKURNU KAPUKURRI

THIS IS OUR DREAM

This compact invites every person, street, community and organisation to join the movement to grow together.

To “travel together to a shared future” with Nyiyaparli and Martu on a journey of mutual respect, inclusive decision-making and increased access to opportunities.

WHAT IS THE CULTURAL COMPACT?

This is Our Dream was launched by the Chair of Karlka Nyiyaparli Aboriginal Corporation, Bradley Hall, and the Chair of Western Desert Lands Aboriginal Corporation, Melvin Farmer.

The statement is an invitation to all people, communities, organisations and government to walk forward in a new way acknowledging Nyiyaparli and Martu land, culture, language and law.

HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED?

We encourage you to get creative to demonstrate your commitment to the Cultural Compact!

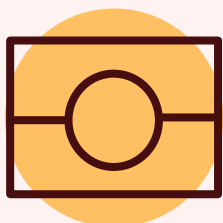

Place your Nyiya Warnima – Wanyjalpa welcome sticker in a visible location near the entrance of your business or organisation

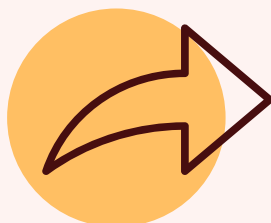

Take the time to learn greetings in Nyiyaparli or Martu

Share stories of how your business is getting involved with This Is Our Dream across Newman Futures channels and other media

Adopt a regular Acknowledgement of Country into your business practices

Celebrate your involvement by sharing the news across your communication channels and tag:

@NewmanFutures

#Thisisourdreamculturalcompact

Encourage other businesses and organisations to sign up

This Is Our Dream acknowledges the Nyiyaparli Traditional Owners of the Country on which Newman stands and the Martu People as the Custodians of Jigalong which sits in Nyiyaparli Country. We respect and recognise their leaders, past, present and emerging, and we are grateful for the privilege of living and working on this Country.
